

College of Health Sciences

The College of Health Sciences includes the School of Health and Service Profession, which houses the Department of Counseling, Department of Medical Laboratory Sciences, and the Department of Social Work and Communication Disorders; the School of Kinesiology; and the School of Nursing. The college offers a number of academic degree programs, including undergraduate and graduate degree programs. Please see the graduate section of the catalog for more information regarding the graduate programs offered by the College of Health Services.

The college offers the following undergraduate degree programs:

Undergraduate Programs offered by the College of Health Sciences

School of Health and Service Professions:

- BS in Nutrition Sciences
- BS in Public Health
- Minor in Food and Nutrition

The Department of Medical Laboratory Sciences:

- AAS in Histotechnology
- AAS in Medical Laboratory Technology
- BAT in Health Professions Technology
- BS in Medical Laboratory Science

School of Kinesiology:

- BAAS in Kinesiology
- BS in Kinesiology
- BS in Sports Management

School of Nursing:

- BSN in Nursing

The Department of Social Work and Communication Disorders:

- BSW in Social Work
- BS in Communication Sciences and Disorders

The Department of Counseling:

- Minor in Counseling